

Blissful Films Ramps Up for New Project

Cast and Crew Needed for Filming of "The Debt"

Milan, NY...Blissful Films honcho Myles Aronowitz announced pre-production for "The Debt" will begin at 5:00 p.m. Thursday, July 11th, 2013 and post-production ends Saturday afternoon, July 13th, with a scheduled premiere of "The Debt" that Saturday evening. The entire cast and crew will be dismissed Sunday, July 14th at 12:00 noon.

"It's whirlwind but it can be done. Hollywood takes too damn long to make movies in my opinion," said Aronowitz. Though no plot details have been revealed, tinsel town is already abuzz with rumors. "I heard it's 'Psycho' meets 'Weekend at Bernie's', with a bit of 'Animal House' thrown in for good measure," said Hal Coon, industry blogger for itsYOURassupthere.com.

Filming will take place at Blissful Films headquarters, located in beautiful Milan in upstate New York. When cast and crew are not on set, they can enjoy amenities such as swimming, field games, live music, card & board games, movie and movie music trivia games, and open bar. Cast and crew will receive VIP access to the premiere screening, awards ceremony, and "after parties." Accommodations are available for all cast and crew members.

Those who wish to be considered for a cast or crew position on "The Debt" must first join the BlissfulArts Guild.
